DAY 1 - Home Cities to Barcelona, Spain. Depart from home cities to Barcelona.

DAY 2 - Barcelona. Arrive in Barcelona in the morning and transfer to the hotel. This afternoon is yours to relax or enjoy the local sites. This evening, join your fellow travellers for a welcome dinner.

DAY 3 - Barcelona. Enjoy a city tour of some of Barcelona’s most famous sites: Plaza De Espana, National Palace, Passeig De Gracia, Gaudí’s Casa Batllo, access into Gaudí’s La Sagrada Familia, Barri Gotic and Las Ramblas to name a few. Stop along the way for a closer look at the monuments and buildings and walk through Barcelona’s city centre and old town. This evening is free to enjoy the shops and restaurants near your hotel.

DAY 4 - Barcelona. This morning & afternoon are free to enjoy. In the evening, we journey to the top of Montjuic; a broad, shallow hill that gives a commanding view over the cities harbour immediately below. After, we head to a traditional Flamenco show with a dinner.

DAY 5 - Girona & the Medieval Villages of the Costa Brava. This morning you will make your way to the City of Girona. Walk through Girona’s historical city centre and visit the old Jewish Quarter, one of the best preserved Jewish Quarters in Europe. Visit Saint Felix Church, Girona Cathedral, the Arab Baths, and walk the paths around the old Roman city walls with its fantastic views of the city below. In the afternoon you will make your way to the medieval villages of Pals and Peratallada with their Romanesque & Gothic buildings. Perched on top of a hill, Pals has commanding views of the surrounding countryside. You will have the opportunity to explore the village with your guide and visit the Tower of Hours and the Pedro lookout point. Next make your way to the village of Peratallada a few kilometers down the road. Your guide will take you to the castle, the Roman Keep, and the main square where you learn about the history and culture of Peratallada.

DAY 6 - Board Cruise Ship. Board the Norwegian Spirit for a ten-day cruise to the Canary Islands.

DAY 7 - At Sea.

DAY 8 - Casablanca, Morocco. The urban landscape of this famed city clearly demonstrates the contrasts between the old and the new. Perhaps you may want to start with a visit to the central market, a massive kaleidoscope of colours. Then maybe kick off your shoes as you visit the modernist landmark of the Hassan II Mosque, the 3rd largest mosque in the world.

DAY 9 - At Sea.

DAY 10 - Las Palmas, Canary Islands. Founded in 1478, today Las Palmas is a bustling, cosmopolitan city with plenty of Spanish ambience, culture and history to go around. Maybe take a scenic drive through the Angostura Valley for an unforgettable experience.

DAY 11 - Santa Cruz de Tenerife, Canary Islands. Located at the eastern tip of the island of Tenerife, the largest of the Canary Islands, Santa Cruz is a natural cruise destination as over half of its perimeter is shoreline. The beaches are lovely at that, from the yellow sands of Las Teresitas to the black sands of the quieter, clothing-optional Las Gaviotas. There’s also plenty to do and see inland.
Day 12 - Funchal, Madeira. The mountainous isle of Madeira has been a popular European destination for years. The idyllic island is perfect for exploring with its beautiful beaches, stunning lava formed landscapes and lush, green forests. But sampling the famed Madeira wines is also an absolute must.

Day 13 - At Sea.

Day 14 - Granada (Malaga), Spain. The strategic position to the Mediterranean Sea has always made Malaga an attractive zone for foreign invasions. From Malaga, you could take an excursion to Granada which showcases an intriguing blend of Arab and European cultures. Be sure to visit The Alhambra, one of the finest examples of Moorish art in Spain.

Day 15 - Alicante, Spain. This Costa Blanca jewel lies between mountains and sea fronted with miles of beaches. Spanish Baroque at its finest, Cathedral de San Nicolas is well worth the stop. Or maybe discover the La Alcudia Archaeological Sites, a working dig occupied since the Stone Age. Later in the evening we will have our farewell dinner onboard the ship.

Day 16 - Barcelona, Spain. After disembarking, you make your way to Montserrat. With your guide explore the Basilica & Moreneta, discover beautiful Lady of Montserrat Chapel, listen to the Escoleania Boys Choir sing and if there is time take the St Joan funicular up the mountain for the stunning views over Catalonia.

Next you will make your way to the Codorniu Cava vineyard in the wine region of Penedes, here you will explore the vast underground cellars on electric trams, and visit the beautiful gardens and the stunning buildings designed by the Art Nouveau architects Puig and Cadafalch.

Day 17 - Barcelona, Spain. Transfer to the airport for your flights back to Canada.
